DEDICATION

TO MRS. D. J. NEILL, WHO IS AN IDEAL TEACHER, HIGHLY RESPECTED AND APPRECIATED BY THE ENTIRE STUDENT BODY, THE ANNUAL STAFF HAS THE HONOR AND PRIVILEGE OF DEDICATING THIS 1948 TIGER'S LAIR.

As Father Time reveals himself to us, may we look back on the pages of this annual with a great sense of pride and joy to the happy times we had together in the years of '47 and '48.

It has been a pleasure to work with the student body of Slaton High School. Remember that the worthwhile things in life are not easily gained. They cannot be given to you. Set your eyes on the goal you wish to attain and then do not alter your course. This is one of the secrets of success. Do not make excuses--make good. I wish to congratulate the annual staff on this presentation of school life. May each member of this student body be happy and successful.

Sincerely yours,

P. L. Vardy

It is with pleasure and is an honor to say a few words to the student body of Slaton High School. You have started the job this year in a pleasant manner and in an energetic and industrious style. Ifeel that the year will be successful in all respects.

With these few words I leave you: set your goal and aims high, but adjust yourself to your means.

Sincerely,

Who's

Nancy Teague
Nancy is outstanding for her sweet disposition, nice voice, attractive appearance, and studious habits.

Paula Maxey
Paula, the only freshman selected for Who's Who this year, is cooperative, alert, attractive, and poised.

Jim Cherry
In Jim Cherry, Slaton High has had another Caruso. Not only is he pleasant, courteous, and studious; but he has also been one of the football stars.

Lawrence Morgan
Lawrence, a football player, was chosen as second string Half Back in 6A District. He has a pleasing personality and is appreciated by everyone for his good habits and wholesome attitudes.

Anna Phillips
Does anything need to be done? Anna can do it. Besides, she is an ideal student, dependable, cooperative, and energetic.

Who

Joyce Pember
A general favorite with teachers and pupils, Joyce is attractive and poised. She is always loyal to her friends, her class, and her school.

Guy Gentry
The recipient of the highest football honor in our school, Guy was chosen as "First All-District Tackle." He is one of the best-mannered boys in Slaton High.

Betty Gentry
Betty is trustworthy, enthusiastic, and unselfish. In her willingness to contribute her time and talents for the good of her class and school, she cannot be excelled.

John Schmidt
John, one of the football heroes of the school, made second string Half Back in the 6A District. He is polite and well-liked by everyone.

Lena Schmidt
Lena, a quaint, pretty little miss with a nice personality, can always be found in the center of school activities.
